

Parish Notices and Updates —

FROM THE WARDENS: At our Parish Shared Meal following the 11am service, we will be celebrating Fr. Nicholas' and Melissa's ministry with us. We hope you will be able to join us and bid them well wishes for their next journey. In lieu of gifts, Fr. Nicholas has requested donations be made to the St. Michael's Youth Conference (Fr. Nicholas' last Sunday will be next Sunday, June 9th.)

The Parish Corporation is pleased to announce that St. Mary's has hired two summer students (Kayla and Sam) who will be beginning their work this coming Monday, June 3rd. Both students will be working in the Food Forest, while Sam will also be taking on responsibilities with Jim McElman for the St. Mary's Cemetery. We are very excited to have them with us for the summer, and hope you will say "hello" if you see them around the church.

The Parish Corporation is also very pleased to announce that the Anglican Foundation of Canada has awarded St. Mary's a grant of $10,000. A great thank you to Allan Agnew, our treasurer, for all his hard work in writing the grant applications for this successful project.

OPEN CHURCH EVENT: The ACW of St. Peter's Church, Fredericton 2365 Woodstock Road, are hosting an Open Church event this afternoon. Enjoy majestic organ music and choir recitals beginning at 2 pm and learn some compelling St. Peter's history. Take a stroll through the historical cemetery. A free will offering to support the work of the ACW would be appreciated. Parking adjacent to the Church. To be held rain or shine.

The last ZOOM EVENING PRAYER will take place Friday, June 7th at 4:30.

The weekly WEDNESDAY CELEBRATION OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST will come to an end for the summer as we await the appointment of our new Rector. The last Wednesday service before the summer will take place June 5th at 7pm (preceded by Evening Prayer at 6:30pm).

Please join us in the Parish Hall following the 11:00 a.m. Celebration on Sunday our monthly Shared Meal as we bid farewell to Fr. Nicholas and Melissa.
